Introducing the Flipsaw Classroom

The Flipsaw Classroom is an innovative response to one of the main challenges felt by learners transitioning to online learning: the sense of being overloaded with too much work outside the classroom. The Flipsaw addresses this by combining the Flipped Classroom model with Aronson's Jigsaw Classroom, leading to less work for students and the creation of information gaps which have been shown to increase learner engagement. The example described is suitable for groups of 3-30, but the method is eminently scalable and can also be used with large lecture-style groups of a few hundred. The Flipsaw is the work of Dr Aeddán Shaw and Dr Luc Ampleman.
